

Navigate Your High-Stakes Conversion with Athens Administrators

Over the years Athens has managed hundreds of claim program conversions. Through these experiences we have learned that risk managers share many common anxieties when it comes to contemplating a move to a new Third-Party Administrator (TPA). With Athens Administrators, Risk Managers can rest assured that their concerns will be addressed.

At Athens Administrators, we recognize that conversions are a complex process, and we are here to guide you every step of the way. We work closely with our clients to ensure a seamless onboarding, addressing concerns, alleviating worry and delivering exceptional results along the way.

COMMON CONCERNS WHEN CONSIDERING A TPA TRANSITION

 COMMUNICATION
Will a new TPA deliver on the promise to provide a higher overall level of communication? Answer phone calls and promptly respond to calls and emails?

 VENDOR SELECTION
Will we be included in the ancillary service provider selection process? Creating a truly custom program?

 SERVICE CONTINUITY
During the conversion, will our injured workers get lost in the process? Will they face disruption to their treatment? Will they know who to contact for assistance?

 DATA ACCURACY
Upon completion of the conversion will our data be complete? Will our ongoing reporting be accurate?

 STAFF EXPERTISE AND STABILITY
Will a new TPA be able to consistently provide qualified personnel and be able to eliminate constant turnover of staff?

 COST MANAGEMENT
Will our costs continue to escalate, and will choosing a new TPA alleviate the issue?

 TECHNOLOGY AND DATA SECURITY
Will a new TPA possess technology that will improve our ability to analyze and report on our risk? Will our ultra-sensitive data be secure?

 TRACK RECORD AND REFERENCES
Will a new TPA understand the unique intricacies of our industry and how we operate? Will they “get us”?

COMMUNICATION

Effective communication is the most critical element to a successful program transition and ongoing partnership. Athens understands that fostering open lines of communication, promptly responding to inquiries, and actively involving clients in the onboarding process are the key to success.

By fostering open lines of communication and holding regular meetings, we ensure that our clients are heard and their inquiries are promptly addressed. We actively seek their input and insights in order to shape the services we provide. With Athens as your TPA partner, you can expect transparent and proactive communication, empowering you to make informed decisions which will actively contribute to the success of the overall partnership.

At Athens Administrators, we fully understand the significance of effective communication throughout the onboarding and continuing partnership with our clients.

- At the onset of a program transition, we will establish and schedule a regular cadence of communication with our clients. This is designed to meet their specific needs and preferences. Regular meetings during the onboarding process ensures that our clients are apprised of the most current status of their transition, next steps, deadlines and any required actions.
- We prioritize open lines of communication and will assign an Implementation Specialist who is the key contact for our new client during the onboarding process. Our experienced individual's job is to ensure that our clients are kept well-informed every step of the way. They will answer all questions and provide all requested information.

- Transitions involve many individuals and moving parts and the complexity can generate stress. We value our clients as individuals and therefore regularly schedule clear and comprehensive status meetings that have proven to alleviate this issue.
- We promptly respond to inquiries and address concerns, whether that is via e-mail, text, phone call or a meeting.

We believe that top notch communication during the transition process sets the standard and builds the foundation for a strong and trusting long term partnership.
